When you enrol in more than one course, your timeframes are managed consecutively (one after the other). This is done to ensure you are completing your courses in the order that best supports your learning and ensures any pre-requisites held within courses are completed prior to course content relying on that knowledge. By default, you will be enrolled in the lower-level qualification first e.g. Certificate III.

Entry requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for the listed qualifications, however, it is important that you recognise that there is a mandatory 100 hours of work placement required for the CHC30221 Certificate III in School Based Education Support and CHC40221 Certificate IV in School Based Education Support qualifications.

First Choice College have specific entry requirements as follows:

- The minimum age requirement is 15 years of age for most courses
- First Choice College reserve the right to deny admission or terminate enrolment unless restricted by a regulator or state funding body clause
- Meet the conditions of enrolment as detailed in the Enrolment process section

Photo identification

First Choice College must require and confirm identification in service delivery to individuals for nationally-recognised course programs. We are authorised by Australian law to deal only with individuals who have appropriately identified themselves.

It is a condition of registration for all RTOs under the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 that we identify individuals and their specific individual needs on commencement of service delivery and collect and disclose Australian Vocational Education and Training Management of Information Statistical Standard (AVETMISS) data on all individuals enrolled in nationally-recognised training programs or units of competency.

Unique student identifier (USI)

A USI is required by all Australians undertaking nationally recognised training. It allows students to link to a secure online record of all qualifications gained regardless of the provider. This system was implemented by the Australian Government in 2015, so it will show student achievements from 1 January 2015 onwards.

As an RTO, First Choice College cannot issue Certificates or Statements of Attainment without a USI. Therefore, it is mandatory that all students supply their USI upon enrolment. If you do not have a USI, please visit <https://www.usi.gov.au/students/create-your-usi> for more information, and instructions on how to apply.

Note: Certificates will only be issued in the name associated with the USI and the name shown on your identification documents. When any document is shown in a former name, an official document e.g. marriage certificate or change of name certificate must be accompanied with your enrolment.

Enrolment process

You are required to ensure you fully understand and agree to all aspects of your enrolment before you enrol and commence your studies. As part of the conditions of enrolment, students need to:

- complete the language, literacy, and numeracy indicator tool
- inform First Choice College of any medical conditions, disabilities, or training assistance requirements
- read, agree, and acknowledge the terms and conditions
- provide a unique student identifier (USI)
- provide a learner unique identifier (LUI) if a current QLD school student
- provide clear photo identification
- provide additional evidence to meet funding eligibility requirements (where applicable)

Course fees may change at any time due to additional services being offered or promotional specials. Students are not entitled to a refund because of varying special prices.

Payment options

In compliance with Clause 7.3 of the Standards for RTOs 2015, First Choice College safeguards fees paid in advance by students.

Students have two payment options:

1. Payment upfront – this option involves an upfront payment of up to $1500 and the balance payable via a payment plan
2. Payment plan – this option involves a deposit being paid and the balance payable via a payment plan

Note: Payment plans may attract administration and/or transaction fees depending on the payment gateway selected. Students who choose a payment plan option are to ensure they have sufficient cleared funds in their nominated account. First Choice College may under certain provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 provide information about you to a credit reporting agency if requested.

Co-contribution fees – C3G and HLS

Students who enrolled under Certificate 3 Guarantee (C3G), Higher-Level Skills (HLS) or JobTrainer (JT) funding options, will be required to pay a mandatory co- contribution towards their study. These fees are due payable once enrolment is confirmed. Note: any units that are eligible for credit transfer are fee exempt (refer to recognition processes section for credit transfer eligibility information)

Co-contribution fees are as follows:

Certificate 3 Guarantee (C3G) qualifications
Concession fee (HCC or PCC card holders)	$25 per unit
Non-concessional fee	$35 per unit

Higher Level Skills (HLS) qualifications
Concession fee (HCC or PCC card holders)	$18 per unit
Non-concessional fee	$36 per unit

Co-contribution fees – Traineeships

Traineeships are funded by the Queensland Government under the User Choice Policy. User Choice provides a public funding contribution toward the cost of training and assessment services for eligible Queensland Trainees. Student contribution fees are set under this policy at $1.60 per nominal hour non-concessional or $0.64 per nominal hour for concessional (eligible for students associated with HCC or PCC holders).

Note: any units that are eligible for credit transfer are fee exempt (refer to recognition processes section for credit transfer eligibility information)

Orientation and cooling-off period

Students enrolled into a Nationally Accredited Qualification have a 7-day orientation period from the agreed course commencement date (date online access details are provided).

This orientation period is in place for two reasons:

1. It provides you with a cooling off period, in which you are automatically eligible for a withdrawal (see Withdrawal from Course by Student for more details).
2. Within the 7-day orientation period, you are required to complete your pre-course entry questionnaire. You should also familiarise yourself with the online learning platform, layout and navigation of the course and support processes.

Withdrawal requests received by students during the orientation (cooling off) period will result in a full refund of course fees paid less a withdrawal fee* of:

- $250.00 per certificate for Fee for Service enrolments into Nationally Accredited Qualifications/Courses.
- Up to $250 for students enrolled in Government subsidised training

*The withdrawal fee will be withheld to cover trainer and administration costs associated with setting up student records and providing learning content and assessment materials. This fee is payable in all circumstances including payment plan options when the fee has not yet been collected, and fees will still be deducted until the withdrawal fee has been paid.

Withdrawal requests received by students after the orientation (cooling off) period will result in no refunds being paid and any unpaid portions of the financial contract agreed to will remain due and owing in accordance with the payment plan until paid in full.

Non-payment of course fees

Failure to make a payment against your course may result in access to your course being de-activated. Course access will be re-activated once payment has been made.

For the first 45 days you will be given the opportunity to address your payments and bring them up to date. Failure to bring the payments up to date will be in breach of your finance agreement and will result in you being required to pay the outstanding balance in full within 15 days.

Failure to pay the outstanding balance will result in your default information (as permitted under the Privacy Act and other relevant Laws) being provided to a Debt Collection Agency for recovery and legal action. A cost of 22% (plus GST) will be incurred for any balances referred on. If no payment arrangements are made with the Debt Collection Agency to pay the outstanding balance, your default information (as permitted under the Privacy Act and other relevant Laws) will be provided to a Default Reporting Agency to list the default debt against your credit file.

If you experience any financial difficulties, please contact the college rto@fcc.edu.au

Note: refer to the Fee schedule for a summary of these fees and additional course fees.

Extensions or Cancellations

If your course is due to expire and you require additional time to complete your course requirements, you can purchase an extension of your course timeline. Extensions can be purchased for a period of 1 month, 3 months or 6 months.

A student may cancel their course enrolment by completing the course cancellation form. A student is not entitled to a refund of any kind upon cancelling their course.

For students in traineeships, course extensions are applied via DESBT. First Choice College administration team will contact the trainee before their course end date with the relevant form to be completed.

For students in traineeships, course cancellations are processed via DESBT. First Choice College administration team will contact the trainee and employer to complete the relevant cancellation form.

Course cancellation by First Choice College

Should First Choice College be unable to provide all units to meet the student's course enrolment the student will be advised as soon as possible via the contact details provided by the student upon enrolment. Alternative units may be offered, with clear explanations of any variations to course outcomes this could result in. This will only apply when not a result of required government changes e.g. the qualification and/or a unit of competency is superseded.

If First Choice College is unable to provide an alternative that the student is satisfied with, the course fees paid on any undelivered unit will be refunded and a Statement of Attainment will be issued for satisfactorily completed units.

Each module of the course is considered to have been delivered if:

1. the course content and assessments have been made available to a student
2. the portion of time allocated to that module has been given e.g. course is cancelled after 10 months of a 12-month enrolment then a refund of course fees will only be considered for modules that would be reasonably expected to be completed within the last two months of the enrolment.

Course delivery

First Choice College course content is delivered online. You will have access to your course and all the resources, lessons, and assessments from the time your enrolment is activated. Your course content will be available 24/7. First Choice College courses are self-paced, whereby the learning is initiated and directed by the learner.

- Self-paced learning for students not accessing government funding: students can take the amount of time within their course duration (enrolment start and end dates) that is needed for them to complete an activity or assessment at a pace they set; giving them the time they need to achieve the best learning outcomes.

Factors that may affect individual progress and timelines, include:

- your own efforts and commitment to submitting assessments regularly and on time
 - your study load (i.e., full- or part-time)
 - how many units (if any) are eligible for credit transfer
 - recognition of previous experience and qualifications
- Self-paced learning for students accessing government funding: students work through the assessments as guided by the training plan dates. Assessment progress is monitored as per the funding contract.

Volume of learning

The AQF expresses the time expected to gain a qualification as equivalent to full-time years. This is known as the 'Volume of Learning'.

The volume of learning statements provide an indication of the amount of time it is expected that a student would need as a full-time student to achieve the qualification. Volume of Learning figures assume none of the competencies identified in a qualification are currently held.

The listed time frames account for all activities a student undertakes, including supervised training activities, classroom sessions, online modules and/or workplace learning, as well as individual study, practice, and learning.

The Volume of Learning for qualifications in the VET sector are:

AQF Qualification Level	Typical Volume of Learning
Certificate III	1 - 2 years (up to 4 years for some apprenticeship/traineeship agreements)
Certificate IV	0.5 - 2 years
Diploma	1 - 2 years

(Taken from: <https://www.aqf.edu.au/sites/aqf/files/aqf-2nd-edition-january-2013.pdf>)

Competency based training

First Choice College delivers qualifications in the Vocational Education Training (VET) sector. Used in the VET sector is Competency Based Training (CBT), which is an approach to training and assessment that focuses on allowing a student to demonstrate their ability to do something. CBT is used to develop concrete skills and is typically based on a standard of performance expected in the workplace and industry.

CBT programs deliver qualifications that are made up of Units of Competency. Each unit defines the skills and knowledge required to effectively perform in the workplace. Assessment is based upon the learning outcomes expected from each Unit of Competency.

Unlike the traditional school system of grading assessments on a scale ranging from A to Fail, assessment of CBT determines if you have the required skills and knowledge... or not yet.

Assessment is specifically conducted to determine if a student can deliver essential outcomes related to the performance criteria within each Unit of Competency. Basically, this means assessment is conducted to see whether a student has the required skills and knowledge to perform effectively in the workplace. If a student's performance in the assessment does not demonstrate the requirements the student is marked as 'Not Competent', while successful performance will result in the student being deemed 'Competent'. Assessors will look for evidence against which to base their judgements of competency.

Included in our training and assessment strategies are practices that promote flexibility in learning and assessment. This means we will work with you to provide options that are responsive to your individual needs, and that maximises learning outcomes and access to learning activities.

All training and assessment delivered by First Choice College contain Foundation Skills. Foundation Skills are embedded into Units of Competency. They are non-technical skills that support participation in the workplace, the community, and adult education and training. Examples of Foundation Skills include things such as communication skills, literacy skills (reading, writing and numeracy), interacting with others, and skills to effectively participate in the workplace such as teamwork, problem solving, and self- and time-management.

Trainer and Assessors

First Choice College staff are appropriately qualified and have sufficient, relevant industry experience to train and assess the courses delivered. On occasion, a subject specialist may conduct assessment in conjunction with a fully qualified assessor. You will be advised of specific instances in your course whereby this may be the case.

Our methodologies regarding training and assessment work toward ensuring our processes meet national assessment principles including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer (CT).

Recognition processes

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an assessment process that involves making a judgment on the skills and knowledge an individual has because of past study and/or experience. The aim of RPL is to recognise your existing competencies without having to go through the complete processes of training and assessment. You will still need to provide evidence though, upon which your assessor can base their judgement.

Evidence must be:

- Authentic – it must be your own work
- Sufficient – it must demonstrate competence over a period of time, that the competencies can be repeated, and the evidence must be enough so that the assessor can make an accurate judgement regarding competency
- Current – it must demonstrate up-to-date knowledge and skills i.e., from the present or the very-recent past (within last 12 months)
- Valid – it must be relevant to what is being assessed

Prior learning can include skills and knowledge gained through:

- paid work experience - full-time, part-time, or casual in Australia or overseas
- voluntary work
- hobbies or leisure activities
- being coached or mentored (or coaching and mentoring others)
- attending and participating in seminars, conferences, and workshops
- short courses
- private study and research
- any other life experiences that have given you competencies that match those in the relevant courses

Recognition of Prior Learning is only available for Nationally recognised training. You may be eligible to apply for RPL on one or more units of competency in your course and First Choice College can provide an information sheet regarding the RPL process.

Credit Transfer applies when you have completed a formal qualification that has covered any of the same unit/s of study as one of our courses, and this is transferred to your course. First Choice College will recognise the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations.

To apply for a direct credit transfer you will need to supply a certified copy your documentation (certificates and/or statements) and your verifiable USI Transcript.

All assessment submissions should be made using your Student Portal. First Choice College endeavour to mark student assessments as soon as possible and in order of receipt. Marking timelines may reach a 2–4 week turnaround time, when the marking load is exceptionally high. We appreciate your patience when this is the case.

You will receive feedback from a First Choice College Education team member regarding the outcome of each of your assessment items. To be deemed 'Competent' against a nationally accredited unit, you must meet the requirements for all elements that comprise that unit.

If you receive feedback to say your assessment submission was Satisfactory or Competent (SAT or S or COMP) means you have completed that task to the requirements expected.

If you receive feedback to say your assessment submission was 'Not yet satisfactory' or 'Not yet competent' (NYS or NYC), you will have up to 3 attempts to re-submit your assessment for that unit/module. The assessor will have entered in feedback to the answers that need corrective action or additional information added to your existing answer. This feedback should help guide you, however you are welcome to contact the assessor via education@fcc.edu.au should you need clarity or prefer verbal assistance.

If after 3 unsuccessful resubmission attempts, the unit/s will be deemed as 'competency not achieved/failed'. You will be required to re-sit the assessment/s and a fee may apply.

Reasonable adjustment

Reasonable adjustment is a term used in the education, employment, and VET sectors to refer to any modification made to the learning environment, training delivery or assessment method to help learners with disability or ongoing ill health to access and participate in education and training on the same basis as those without disability or ongoing ill health.

This includes:

- ensuring that course activities are sufficiently flexible,
- providing additional support where necessary, and
- offering a reasonable substitute within the context of the course where a learner cannot participate.

Reasonable adjustment is not designed to give a learner with disability or ongoing ill health an advantage over other learners, to change course standards or outcome, affect the integrity of the qualification, or to guarantee success.

In assessing whether a particular adjustment for a learner is reasonable, First Choice College will consider the following:

- the learner's relevant circumstances and interests
- the learner's disability or ongoing ill health
- views of the learner
- effect of the adjustment on the learner, including the ability to achieve learning outcomes, ability to participate and independence
- effect of the proposed outcome on others e.g. staff and other learners
- costs and benefits of making the proposed adjustment

Issuance

Upon successful completion of your coursework and provided all fees are paid, a copy of your Certificate or Statement of Attainment will be issued to you within 30 calendar days of you as being assessed as meeting all requirements for the course following our completion process. This meets the compliance requirements as set for First Choice College and other RTOs under the Standards for RTOs 2015.

Authenticity and plagiarism

When answering assessment questions, you will find content in your course and on websites that assist you in formulating your answers. It is important that you do not simply copy and paste that information. Copying and pasting shows us that you have been able to locate relevant information, but it does not demonstrate that you understand it. It is important that you take the time to formulate your answers into your own words so that you demonstrate your understanding of the content.

When undertaking research assignments, you may include ideas from other writers in your work. In these instances, you will be expected to reference. Referencing means acknowledging someone else's work or ideas, which you have used as a source for your own answer in an assessment. To acknowledge the source correctly, it is important to 'cite' the point that you are using, by documenting the source. It is mandatory by law for all students to cite or acknowledge information that has come from other sources. Without appropriate referencing, students are in effect "stealing" the work of others - this is tantamount to academic fraud. There are a number of websites that show you how to correctly reference your work, for example: www.usq.edu.au/library/referencing/apa-referencing-guide

It is neither acceptable, nor permitted for you to lodge plagiarised work as your own for any assessments. Forms of plagiarism can include:

- turning in someone else's work as your own
- copying words or ideas from someone else without giving credit
- failing to put a quote into quotation marks
- giving incorrect information about the source of a quotation
- changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving credit
- copying so many words or ideas from a source that it makes up the majority of your work, whether you give credit or not

Most cases of plagiarism can be avoided, however, by citing sources. By referencing your work, acknowledging that certain material has been borrowed and providing your audience with the information necessary to find that source is usually enough to prevent plagiarism.

Access and equity

First Choice College will work to meet the needs of the community and individuals and/or groups who might be otherwise disadvantaged. First Choice College will facilitate equitable access to all programs for clients irrespective of their gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation, ethnicity, culture, linguistic background, religious background, race, location, socio-economic background, parental status, or disability.

Our admission procedures are free of discrimination, and if an individual does not meet entry requirements, all attempts are made to assist them to identify alternative courses of action. This includes support within reason, and which is practical for students.

First Choice College staff are required to uphold our commitment to access and equity principles and implement the following strategies:

- make contact with students who have self-identified that they have a special need and discuss special arrangements and requirements
- maintain confidentiality regarding the student's special needs and requirements
- use appropriate language
- modify activities to support the learning process of the student within the training package and fully accommodate student needs if appropriate to do so
- modify assessments to accommodate student needs and requirements if appropriate to do so
- include flexible delivery and assessment arrangements where necessary

Student feedback

First Choice College is dedicated to ensuring its practices are constantly reviewed to ensure best possible outcomes. This approach to continuous improvement relies on input from students regarding their experiences whilst enrolled in their course. We welcome feedback at any time but will also specifically ask for it at the completion of your study, in the form of a Learner Feedback Survey. This is a government issued evaluation which requests feedback across a range of aspects.

Note: If enrolled into funded training program, you may receive a survey from the Department seeking information on your training experience.

Complaints and appeals policy

First Choice College actively encourages feedback and dialogue with our students and trainers as part of its continuous improvement philosophy. Students have the right to complain or appeal if they feel that they have been unfairly treated in some way.

Complaints are welcomed as a means of ensuring that we identify and overcome problems faced by students and provide an opportunity to improve our business and/or the delivery of our training programs.

We have established an equitable and transparent process for encouraging and dealing with feedback, complaints, grievances and appeals which is documented in our Complaints and Appeals Procedure and this can be accessed via the website www.fcc.edu.au or on request from rto@fcc.edu.au

Student visas

Students on a Student VISA (500) cannot enrol in a qualification with First Choice College and are advised to seek out a CRICOS registered organisation. For holders of other VISA types, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure they hold the appropriate study rights for the duration of their enrolment. Students acknowledge that should their study rights in Australia change they may have their enrolment cancelled with no refund.

Returning mail

If a student has posted an item to First Choice College e.g. hard copy of an assessment, and wishes to have the item returned via post, the student will be responsible for all postage and packaging costs involved. Costs will vary according to the package weight, size, tracking and delivery destination.

Other important details specific to students accessing government funding

- If a student's course activity remains inactive for a continuous period of 30 days, we will take proactive measures to re-engage the student.
- If there is no response or activity from the student after the initial engagement attempts, we will continue to monitor the situation. After 60 days of inactivity, we will extend our communication efforts by reaching out to the student's employer, if applicable.
- If, despite our attempts, there is still no response or engagement from either the student or the employer after a total of 90 days of inactivity, First Choice College will escalate the matter. We will contact the Apprenticeship and Traineeship Support Network (AASN) to seek further guidance and intervention.
- In cases of extended inactivity and unresponsiveness, the student's training contract may be cancelled by the AASN or the department. This decision will be made with careful consideration and in accordance with relevant regulations and guidelines.
